Main Particulars

Welcome to this thoughtfully designed shared living space, the perfect place for care leavers stepping into independence. The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen and dining area, a bright and inviting space where residents can come together to share meals and experiences. Fitted with modern appliances and a generous dining table, it's a space that encourages community and the sharing of daily life.

Each bedroom is a personal sanctuary, offering plush carpeting, a comfortable bed, and ample storage to make the space your own. Large windows flood the rooms with natural light, providing a peaceful environment for rest and personal reflection. The bathrooms are sleek and functional, featuring clean lines and modern fittings, ensuring a refreshing start to the day.

Safety and comfort are paramount here, with secure doors and a robust staircase linking the two levels of the home. This property is more than just a house; it's a supportive space where young adults can grow, learn, and prepare for the future, while forming lasting bonds with housemates who share similar journeys. It's an ideal setting for new beginnings, offering care leavers the independence they desire with the community feel they can cherish.
