Main Particulars

This property already has two young asylum seeking children 16+ living here who are fully engaged with our culture club and independent living program.

Discover a warm and well-arranged 3-bedroom home, nestled in a friendly neighborhood, perfect for care leavers looking to share a space. This inviting property offers a balanced blend of communal and private areas, designed with comfort and convenience in mind.

Each of the three bedrooms is a restful retreat with ample natural light, equipped with essential furniture that supports both rest and productivity. The house is served by a full-size bathroom complete with a shower, bath, toilet, and washbasin, ensuring a relaxing and private experience. Additional facilities include a separate shower room and a dedicated toilet room, providing further convenience and ease for all residents.

The heart of the home is the open living space, a versatile area with plush seating and tasteful decor that invites residents to gather, socialise, or simply unwind. The kitchen is modern and practical, offering all the necessary appliances and ample counter space to inspire culinary creativity.

Outside, the house boasts a garden with a dedicated planting area, potential to create a peaceful oasis for those with a green thumb or anyone seeking a breath of fresh air.

This house is more than just a living space; it's a foundation for independence, a place where care leavers can feel secure and supported as they transition into their next life chapter. With its blend of shared and individual spaces, this home is ready to welcome its new residents with open arms.
